NOTICE

The Committee has decided that only MOTHERS AND WIVES of soldiers and sailors will march in the first section. MOTHERS AND WIVES of soldiers and sailors only. Please remember.

Committee

Everything is ready for the monster street parade of patriotic women this evening and the musical and speaking program for the Liberty meeting at the High School auditorium is announced in these columns. The parade band will be in on the evening P. R. R. train and after being served with sandwiches and hot coffee they will head the parade at the upper end of Second street. The parade will move, rain or shine. The women are a determined lot, as we all well know, and now that they have taken up this thing they are going to see it through in spite of weather elements.

Hon. J. Washington Logue and Hon. Samuel B. Hare are speakers of the evening and both headliners in their professions and it was indeed a lucky strike when the committee succeeded in getting these two gentlemen to come to Clearfield. They are sure to please and no man in Clearfield can afford to miss hearing them.

The parade will be a revelation, both in numbers and in beauty. The idea of giving the first section of the parade over to the mothers and wives of soldiers and sailors is a commendable one and everybody is willing that these should have the honor.

The parade will move promptly at seven o'clock and the women are asked once again to be sure to be at their respective places promptly at 6:30 to form in line. Marshals will look after the details. The big feature of the parade will be the wind-up at the High school where thousands will sing "America" our beloved hymn. Slips of paper having the words printed thereon will be handed to the marchers just before they fall in line at the respective streets.

(By United Press)

New York, April 26—An ash port carelessly left open was believed today to have flooded the American liner St. Paul sinking her at her pier. However, so far no official announcement as to the cause of the accident which probably cost three lives, has been made. Twenty men of the 350 aboard were injured. Work of raising the vessel was progressing rapidly today. Meanwhile investigation to definitely place the responsibility for the sinking was conducted by army men.

MIGHT HAVE HIT THE KAISER

(By United Press)

Copenhagen, April 26—A British airman bombarded Zebrugge while the Kaiser was inspecting the results of the recent naval raid there, German newspapers declared today. The Kaiser remained and completed his inspection.

FLAG RAISING AT RIVERVIEW

The employees of the Standard Brick works, the Riverview plant of the Clearfield Brick manufacturing company, reaffirmed their allegiance to "old glory" by raising a handsome 6x10 foot flag at the noon hour today. There was no speech making but a whole lot of patriotic enthusiasm which vented itself in loud cheering as the beautiful flag unfurled to the breeze from the top of the hundred foot flagpole.

A reinforced concrete chimney 370 feet high (the highest in the world) has recently been completed in Japan.

GERMANS HAMMER WEDGE BETWEEN FRENCH AND BRITISH LINES AND GAIN FOOTING ON MOUNT KEMMEL

Bulletin by Simms

April 26.—French troops are entirely surrounded on Mt. Kemmel. They are still fighting. After eight hours fighting yesterday, German storm troops finally wedged their way between the French and British flanks and crossed the Kemmel-Ypres road where the terrific allied fire held them up for two hours. Then they turned southward and poured down the valley to the west of Kemmel Hill, surrounding the French, who are still fighting atop the heights.

By Henry Wood
With the French Armies in the Field, April 26—The Germans are continuing the development of their attack against Amiens with increasing violence aiming eventually at a separation of the Franco-British forces. This is an indication of Hindenburg's determination to force a supreme decisive contest which unquestionably has been induced by the fact that preceding the first attack the Germans already had engaged 130 divisions of which approximately only fifty ranked as first or second class units with which to force the final issue.

(By United Press)
Berlin via London, April 26—"General von Armin's army is engaged in battling for Kemmel Heights" the official statement of the German war office issued Thursday night declared.

(By United Press)
London, April 26—German forces have obtained a footing on Mt. Kemmel, one of the most important heights in Flanders, following an all day battle on a ten mile front, Field Marshal Haig reported today. In the neighborhood of Dran-

led to withdraw a short distance under heavy enemy attack between Bailleul and Wycheate. Heavy fighting is continuing in the region of Kemmel and Hollebeke. Infantry action around Hangard-En-Santerre and along the Avres died down yesterday the French war office reported last night. There was heavy mutual artillery fighting in this region however. The German base statement announced the capture of Hangard-En-Santerre and progress northwest of Castel.

Moscow, April 26—The Germans are steadily withdrawing troops and sending them to France. Polish citizens refused to enlist in a proposed Polish corps to fight against the allies in Flanders.

SAMMIES TO BE DECORATED

By Frank J. Taylor
With the American army in Lorraine, April 26—Night — A French general will decorate with the Croix De Guerre the colors of the American regiment which defeated the five day attack of picked troops northwest of Toul two weeks ago. Individual members also will be decorated. The citations and ceremony are scheduled for Sunday. This is the first time an American regiment has received the French War Cross.

CURWENSVILLE HONORS CLAIR W. HADDEN

Loyal Sister City Pays Respect To Patriotic Son Who Gave His Life For His Country

BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTES GIVEN

Curwensville, Pa., April 26 — Curwensville was ablaze with patriotic sympathy yesterday due to the obsequies of a former citizen, Clair W. Hadden, whose life expired as a sacrifice on the altar of liberty and democracy at Camp Lee last Saturday. Burgess Traister having issued a proclamation of unusual devotion and patriotic spirit, all the industries and places of business were closed for the funeral which was held at the Academy of Music Thursday at 2 p. m. Flags were at half-mast and a subdued air was prevalent.

The remains were lying in state at the Academy for several hours preceding the exercises, so were viewed by many hundreds from Curwensville and neighboring towns. Rev. George W. Clegg presided over the following program at the Academy: America, by the congregation, taxing the capacity of the building, accompanied by the Keystone Cornet Band. Prayer by Rev. Irvin P. Hawkins. Hymn by the choir. Scripture by Rev. Benjamin H. Conley. Lead Kindly Light, by Keystone Band. Scripture by Rev. Joseph H. Cooke. Hymn by the choir. Brief address by Rev. Philip Lynch. Jesus Lover of My Soul, sung by the audience. Sermon by Rev. G. W. Clegg with Proverbs 30:16-17 as text. Prayer by Rev. J. Max Lantz. Nearer My God to Thee, by Keystone Band, concluded the exercises at the Academy.

Impressive was the appearance of the casket enshrouded by a flag and guarded by a detail of local military from Clearfield.

Several thousand people witnessed the procession winding its way to the cemetery as church bells marked its moving by tolling 24 strokes, the number of the hero's years. School children of the lower grades with their teachers lined the sidewalk as the procession passed.

Capt. Isaac B. Norris as chief marshal rode at the head of the cortege with Fred J. Dyer and John L. Thompson as aides. There followed the carriage with the Curwensville clergy, Crescent Band of Curwensville, old soldiers in carriages, Crescent Refractories Co. employees, Keystone Cornet Band of Curwensville, Rescue Hook and Ladder company in uniform, tannery employees of Curwensville, Glen Richey A. 18 miners, Curwensville High School and upper grades, Boy Scouts, Knights of the Golden Eagle of Glen Richey, I. O. O. F. of Clearfield and Curwensville, pull bearers, hearse with military escort, friends.

As the procession entered the cemetery a one minute salute of 24 shots was fired by a Spanish-American War veteran.

Interment was made at Oak Hill cemetery in Curwensville, after the procession, which was over three blocks long, had traversed the main street of the town. Rev. G. W. Clegg conducted the interment followed by the ritual of the I. O. O. F. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. A. Brown. These exercises were concluded with firing by the military escort and the sounding of taps by the bugler.

How short yet honorable Clair W. Hadden's military career, for he left his home about three weeks ago as a member of Co. L, 319 Infantry. This soldier was a son of Mrs. Frances and the late Anthony Hadden, of Curwensville. He was born at Marion in February, 1894, and is survived by his mother, brother Frank, and sister Mrs. Mark Patterson, all of Curwensville, his brother, Ferdinand of McCortney, and Lloyd at war, being somewhere at sea, en route for the front, and a half brother, Vern Caldwell, of Pine Grove. The deceased was a member of Clearfield Lodge, I. O. O. F. and of Bloomington Castle, K. G. E. of Glen Richey, both of which sent floral tributes and a goodly number of members. This was the first of Curwensville's sons to be returned to his home for burial, though two others had previously sacrificed their lives in this great war.

Some of the elderly citizens of the town claim that this was the greatest demonstration of its kind in Curwensville ever seen.

CLEAN UP NOW AND SAVE THE KIDDIES

Grandpap Fly Is Just About to Begin Bringing His Offspring To Clearfield By Millions

CLEAN BEFORE GRASS GROWS

American housekeepers have adopted the custom of conducting semi-annual house cleanings. Spring and fall, window hangings and everything washable are put through the laundry, carpets and upholstery are taken into the air and thoroughly cleaned and dusted, and all woodwork, floors and furniture are scrubbed and polished until their surfaces shine.

It is advisable at this time for Pennsylvania's citizens to carry out the spring clean-up going to the attics and cellars of the houses, all portions of the premises in the dwelling stands to establish the outdoors, and to adjacent streets and alleys, so that conditions accumulating during the winter months that are unsightly, messy, very often fly breeding and mosquito breeding nuisances detrimental to health, may be removed. Nature now about to place her green mantle over the scars of winter and get of all outdoors a great health laboratory. Clean up now before these things are hidden.

It is proposed to inaugurate a state-wide clean-up during the week of May 6th to May 11th inclusive. Every citizen in the commonwealth is asked to clean his house and to remove every bit of rubbish and unsightly thing stored in any part of his house, he is asked to sweep and completely empty his cellars, attics and to gather every bit of garbage lying on the surface of the ground adjoining his dwelling place at a point convenient for collection and removal by wagon. It is proposed to correct the many sanitary conditions responsible for appalling infant mortality, the stunting and crippling of growing children and those conditions leading to industrial inefficiency due to insanitary evils.

The Federal Children's Bureau has secured governmental endorsement for making our second year of the world-wide war a "Children's Year." A Presidential proclamation has been followed by a proclamation by the governor of this commonwealth urging a country-wide effort to maintain the health and save the lives of our children. While our soldiers are fighting on the battlefields of France to make Pennsylvania safe for our children now alive and those yet unborn to live in, those of us who remain amid the comforts of home must not leave standing a single menace to the lives and health of these children.

Casualties in killed and wounded in the warring countries have been enormous and birth rates have fallen from 25 per cent to 60 per cent. Birth casualties and deaths in civil life with tremendous decrease in birth in some of these countries give an extent

FAREWELL RECEPTION

About twenty-five of the friends of Anson W. Lansberry, one of the next contingent for the National Army, met at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lansberry, on Merrill street last evening and bade the young man to a surprise well party. It was a happy gathering. Music was furnished by the old Lansberry and William Brown. The guest of honor was given a handsome wrist watch as a token of esteem. Delicious refreshments were served. "Jobbery" promised to bring the Kaiser's hide back with him from Berlin.

WHERE WAS P. P. BLISS BORN?

Day before yesterday The Progress carried a query as to the birthplace of the noted hymn writer, P. P. Bliss. It is an assured fact that Mr. Bliss was a Clearfield County man and discussion over the place of his birth is growing quite interesting. Yesterday a reader contributed his bit of information and today in another column, we publish another letter which claims Hickory Kingdom in Houston township as the birthplace instead of Center in Lawrence township. Let everybody give any information they have. We will publish all letters.

THE LIST OF SOLDIERS

The list of soldiers which we print today is not all the men who have gone from this community. The list is started and will be added to as we receive the proper information. It has been our purpose for some time to prepare a roster of men in the service from this community and this list will in the near future be classified and rearranged in a manner that will do justice to these religious men. The list as it stands today is imposing. One would hardly have thought that there were so many. As we glance down the list we see hundreds of names that we know. Many were our friends, and it is small wonder that there are few left on the streets in the evening when so many are seen to have gone to the colors.

NOTHING DOING IN THE CONTEST LINE

The ever-blooming fifty fifty newspaper subscription contest man hit Clearfield Monday evening and had nerve enough to come into The Progress office and offer to increase our subscription list for us by the usual "hound a poor devil for his dollar" plan. We very idea didn't say a word, but quietly walked out to our files and got Mr. Contest Man a copy of last Friday's Progress and when he had finished reading the story of our business growth and we flashed our subscription card index file on him, he promptly apologized for intruding and beat it for outdoors, remarking as he did so, "No use for me here, boss."

There was more truth than poetry in his remark at that. There is no use in these war times for any get rich quick scheme or money-grabbing contest of any kind or description and newspapers first of all have learned that lesson.

LOAN NEARS TWO BILLION

Washington, April 26—Liberty Day proclaimed a national holiday by President Wilson was observed through the land today. A mighty effort was made to bring the somewhat lagging liberty loan up to schedule. Today's close, liberty head-quarters here believe, will keep the loan well past the two billion dollar mark and give impetus to carry it far over the three billion dollars which must at least be obtained. At the capital hall a hundred men marching their first path to war with lead hats, thousand bond buyers. Official figures up to ten o'clock this morning showed the loan totaled $1,968,776,860, less than two-thirds of the minimum.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Clearfield Progress.

In issue of April 24th, 1918 Rev. Poulson asks who can give the birthplace of P. P. Bliss the hymn writer. He was born, I think, in Houston township, Clearfield county, not far from Hickory Kingdom. He often attended church at Penfield. I saw him and heard him sing. He lost his life in the Ashtabula bridge disaster. C. A. WOODS

An airplane was first used in war in 1911 by Hamilton, who flew over Ciudad Juarez, while fighting was in progress between the Mexican rebels and the Government troops, and reported the situation to the latter.

THE GERMAN KAISER A TROGLODYTE

Editors needing suggestion for writings on the Kaiser might read Prof. Proctor's description of various missing links including the aleelet which according to the learned professor is "the lowest vertebrate and fish" and has no brain, heart, bones, skull, ears, or kidney. It is the only vertebrate which lacks a heart, and it is likewise the only vertebrate in which the blood is colorless.

How much would you have to change that to describe the head of the Hohenzollern family? Is not the Kaiser, in fact, a psychological missing link between the troglodytes and modern civilization?

After fighting as a nation for three thousand years, the Italians nationally and individually still stand out among the world's best fighters. And living in America doesn't seem to interfere with their efficiency.

Here is an authentic story from the trenches. A young Italian, coal miner from Pennsylvania, born in America, five feet four inches high, brought in two prisoners, having killed another, and asked for a match. The officer's answer was "I will give you a match if you will bring in another prisoner."

Promptly the young Italian went over the parapet again, and returned with another prisoner walking, with hands in the air, ahead of the Italian's bayonet point.

"Hun fights well in crowds, but is yellow hand to hand, says Yankees."

Under that heading an International News cable quotes a young American soldier as follows: "Them guys don't stand up and fight. They are all right in crowds, but they quit cold when they get in hand-to-hand fighting."—Arthur Brisbane.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BASEBALL IN THE ARMY

Lex McCloskey, a Clearfield boy now a member of the 57th U. S. Infantry and located at Houston, Texas, has been selected for the short stop position on the Regimental baseball team, which will tour the different army cantonments during the summer and thus help furnish a little amusement and recreation to break the monotony of intensive military training.

Lex was some ball tosser while at home and will give a good account of himself.

DESERVES GOLD MEDAL FOR THIS

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn so it lifts out.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and it said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE GETTING RESULTS

A. H. Woodward and J. Frank Snyder addressed a highly enthusiastic meeting at Grampian last night. Grampian's patriotic citizens did themselves proud by purchasing $30,000 worth of Liberty Bonds.

Dr. J. Currier presided at the meeting, which was opened by prayer by Rev. W. R. Jones.

C. S. Russell, of Curwensville, explained the Liberty Loan proposition and the Grampian Boy Scouts acted as solicitors. The Scouts sold $9000 worth of bonds, one energetic lad having twenty-three applications to his credit. The total subscriptions were more than $30,000 and the Scouts promise that these figures will be improved before the campaign ends.

There can be no question of the loyalty and patriotism of the people of Grampian, Penn and Bloom township, that's sure.

H. B. Powell and Hon. Joseph E. Phillips continued the campaign up Chest creek and following a well attended meeting at Five Points about $4,000 worth of bonds were subscribed. Clark's orchestra and male quartette from Mahaffey furnished inspiring music for the occasion.

W. A. Hagerty, W. I. Betts and A. R. Chase addressed a Liberty Loan meeting at Sinal school house in Girard township last evening and before the meeting broke up $4200 worth of bonds were sold. Many additional Girard township citizens had already subscribed following the Surveyor meeting which goes to show that our "northern possessions" are loyal and alright.

SOAPS AND OILS GETTING SCARCE

Owing to conditions that have been coming to a focus during the past ten years, the fat and oil situation in this country is becoming more and more acute with each passing month.

Soap manufacturers, in bulletins to their trade, are presaging that it will not be long before the price of a good clean wash will be much higher than it is today. The decrease in the amount of live-stock that has for years buoyed up the soap industry and the cutting off of all imports from foreign nations; the shipping to our Allies, who are in much worse plight than we are, has brought about a condition that is causing no little amount of worry and the outlook for the industry is not very encouraging.

Even castor oil, which could, upon great stress, be converted to soap and of which there will be an immense acreage planted this coming summer is taken away from the soap makers and is being used as a lubricant for aircraft that will help bring the Hun to his knees.

The American public is and has been willing to make denials to staff the Hun and it looks as if there was going to be another in the shape of paying more for the privilege of keeping clean.

The price of all soap has begun to feel the grease shortage and in some localities the retailers are already feeling the pinch as their soap orders are being cut down by their manufacturers.

The ex-Empress Eugenie, who will be 22 years old next month, is said to be exceedingly well posted on the progress and details of the war, particularly all that pertains to the French participation in the conflict.

"I was a fine example of 'every picture tells a story' says John N. Jones, of 1220 Camden street, Harrisburg. 'I was that crippled up with lumbago that I couldn't straighten myself up and I felt so worn out that I thought my days of usefulness were about done.'

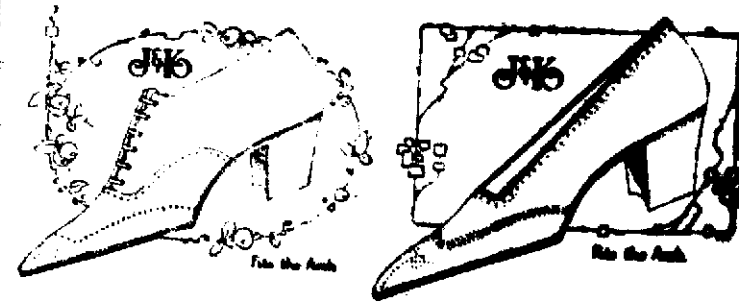

"I suffered agonies. Why, I couldn't even bend over to tie my shoes without feeling as if a streak of fire was running up and down my back, and when I did get down I couldn't get straightened up again."

"I tried a lot of different kinds of medicines without any results so far as I could see and I had a picture of myself out of work and not able to live a hand to earn my living."

"Then one day I read about Tanlac in my paper and I came right down and got a bottle, for, said I, 'if it will do so much for other people it looks as if it would help me.' Did it? Almost before you could say 'How-de-do' I was feeling better, and from that time on my improvement has been steady until now I am back on my job again and feeling five years younger."

"Now I feel absolutely O. K. and am back on my old job again and I can truthfully say that Tanlac put me there."

of deaths over births amounting to hundreds of thousands. The experience of other warring countries will be repeated here. It behooves us as Pennsylvania citizens to face the situation squarely now and to exert ourselves to the utmost to compensate the loss of man-power immediately ahead.

The Nation plans to save a hundred thousand lives of children under five years of age. This means the saving of nearly ten thousand in Pennsylvania alone. We must leave no stone unturned to do our part and by planning and carrying out a statewide "clean up week" the first great forward step may be taken.

The common fly is the greatest menace to human life, dangerous because born in filth, living in filth and emerging from filth to contaminate food supplies. During "Clean-up Week" all collections of garbage, rubbish, ashes and unsightly things should be removed, all accumulations of stable manure should be removed from populous centers and plowed under. A plan may readily be followed for removing all stable manure to farmsteads and plowing it under, without becoming the usual fly breeding menace to the lives and health of Pennsylvania's babies. Stagnant water, cess pools, garbage cans, bad supervised dumps and vacant lots are common breeding places of mosquitoes. Clean them up now before breeding is well started.

Every municipality in Pennsylvania should at this time thoroughly rid itself of public health menaces so that it may be said "This town is doing its bit to conserve and offset the tremendous waste of life incident to war."

ENTERTAINED FOR FRIENDS

Mrs. Jas J. Corrigan entertained about 25 friends and neighbors last night at her home on Fourth street at a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Raymond Logan's birthday. The evening was very enjoyably spent in knitting and the victrol furnished pleasant music for the occasion. Mrs. Corrigan Jr. played a number of popular selections on the piano. An excellent lunch was served and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Logan many more happy birthdays. Mrs. Logan was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts.

Salts Fine for Aching Kidneys

We eat too much meat which clogs Kidneys, then the Back hurts

Most people forget that the kidneys act of grumes and lemon juice, combined and need a flushing occasionally. else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid bowels, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you take a glass of water with kidney salts, you feel a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. Famous salts is made

THE BROWNING GUN INVENTOR

John M. Browning, inventor of the Browning machine gun and the Browning automatic rifle which Uncle Sam is producing by thousands for use against the Boche is turning back to the government some three and a half million dollars in disclaimed royalties.

Normal royalty payments to Browning for guns now under order would be approximately $5,000,000.

"Whatever the government says is a fair price, I am willing to accept," he told the officials sent to negotiate with him. He agreed without question to a flat price of $1,000,000 plus an expense allowance and signed to Uncle Sam the right to produce as many of his guns as might be needed. Browning is 62; of Mormon stock, slender, slightly stooped; bald except for a narrow fringe of gray hair; wears a closely clipped mustache; face is a network of fine lines and between his two eyes two vertical lines cut deeply into the flesh; dresses simply in pepper and salt gray, or blue serge; wears no jewelry; hates publicity; affects no "front," salts away his royalties; still keeps up Utah home, where he was born.

CLEARFIELD'S HONOR ROLL

An effort is being made to secure a complete record of the Clearfield boys who have enlisted in the army and navy since war was declared to exist. Chief Clerk Bain of the local Exemption Board has been compiling such record from his files and those of The Progress. We present here with a roster of the boys who have already offered themselves. While we feel many names have been missed, we have the remarkable total of four hundred names. A very few of those in the list have since been discharged on account of physical disability, but all showed the proper spirit by offering their services. This is certainly a fine showing but we are satisfied that some names have been missed. Will Progress readers kindly look the list over and supply us with any names they may have that do not appear in our list.

YOU CERTAINLY CAN!

Every day we are asked this question: "Can I play Columbia records on my Victor talking machine?" Here is our answer: "You certainly can and without any extra attachments or trouble." Furthermore we wish to advise you that you can play Columbia records on the Brunswick or the Edison Machines just as easily as you can on the Columbia machine.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns. Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet? "Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swelling and draws the soreness and aches right out of your feet. It's smart, and burns. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, calloused and burning feet. It's glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. There's no more foot

The Voice of Lincoln

ON November 19, 1863, Abraham Lincoln made an immortal speech on the Battlefield of Gettysburg. His words ring as clear and as true today—line for line a message to Americans at war—as they did when he spoke them so eloquently more than half a century ago. Let us apply these words to ourselves.

"Our Fathers," he said, "brought forth a nation conceived in Liberty."

"Our soldiers gave their lives that that nation might live."

"The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here."

"It is for us the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion,—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—"

THE flower of America is in France today. They offer—for us—the last full measure of devotion. Let us be with them in our thought, our work, every hour of every day until they come home to us victorious.

And let us remember that "the world will little note what we say here." But what we do here counts. Liberty Bonds will help to save the lives of our men in France and on the sea. Let us roll up a subscription that will set the world on fire. Let us make the victory swift and sure! Some of these boys will not return to us. But our overwhelming offering of dollars to our country will show the world that we shall not turn back—that we have resolved—and acted on that high resolve—"that these dead shall not have died in vain."

ODD FELLOWS WILL CELEBRATE

The ninety-ninth anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be celebrated by Clearfield Lodge 198 in a very fitting way on Friday evening April 26th at 8:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church. A special program has been arranged for. Rev. C. R. Allenbach of Bedford, Pa., former pastor of the Lutheran church at this place, will be the speaker. The general public is invited to this service.

Ladies! Why Keep Corns?

Life a corn or callus right off without one bit of pain.

Yes! You truly can lift off every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as hard corns on bottom of feet, without one bit of pain.

A genius in Cincinnati discovered freezone. It is an ether compound and tiny bottles of this fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents.

Apply several drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with the fingers. You feel no pain while applying freezone or afterwards. Just think! No more corns or calluses to torture you and they go without causing one twinge of pain or soreness. Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

Why

MAINS BOY DIES OF HIS INJURIES AT THE HOSPITAL

Edgar E. Maines, the West Side boy who was so terribly burned by exploding oil at the Merrill Office hunting camp on Wednesday evening, died at the Clearfield hospital at 3 o'clock this morning.

The boy was burned from head to foot, with the exception of one arm, and it is also thought that he inhaled the first burst of flame following the oil can's explosion, although his face was but little burned. A piece of the can struck him in the mouth, cutting a piece out of his lip.

The badly injured boy had lots of nerve and his folks were terribly shocked when they went to the hospital to see him this morning to learn that he had passed away during the night.

He was a bright, manly boy and a comfort to his parents in their advancing years, and they are heartbroken over their sudden bereavement. Besides his father and mother he is survived by seven half brothers and six half sisters.

The funeral cortege will meet at his late home on Mill Road Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock and proceed to the Paradise chapel, where Rev. McChesney of the Baptist church will conduct the services. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

"There is a land that is fairer than day
And by faith I can see it afar;
And a Father waits over the way
To prepare us a dwelling place there."

SUGAR BY CERTIFICATE FOR USE IN PRESERVES

A "certificate" system, thought to be more effective and to cause less inconvenience than the card systems of other countries, will be used this year by the Food Administration to permit housewives to obtain sufficient sugar for summer preserving, and also to prevent hoarding.

This will guard against temporary sugar shortages, it is said, that might result from diverting vessels from the Cuban trade. Retail dealers will be provided with certificates which consumers must sign before they obtain sugar for preserving. The certificate gives the names of the dealer and the consumer, and the quantity needed. The certificate must be returned within a week after it is signed to the Federal Food Administrator for the State.

To build reserve stocks to meet the demand for sugar, jobbers are now permitted to keep sixty days' instead of thirty days' supply, while Federal Food Administrators have the authority to permit retailers to keep more than 1,000 pounds on hand. In the past this quantity has been the limit.

Commercial canners will be permitted to increase their purchases and gradually accumulate enough sugar for their requirements this year, the same latitude is not extended to manufacturers of less essential food-stuffs. Housewives are still restricted to purchases for other than preserving purposes in quantities of not more than five pounds.

HOUSE PASSES BILL
DRAFTING YOUTHS OF 21

Washington, April 25.—Drafting of men who have become 21 since last June 5 was approved this afternoon by the House. Under an amendment by Representative Hull, they will be put at the foot of the list and called only when all available men in the last year's registration have been taken.

This and one other provision which does away with military exemption for divinity students, will necessitate a conference with the senate.

Chairman Dent announced that the war department will order the registration of the men made eligible by this bill June 5. All men who have reached 21 by that date must register. They will be classified after answering questionnaires.

BE PRETTY! TURN
GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Now, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound" you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THE UNIFORM ONLY THING GREEN ABOUT THE MARINES

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Folk from coast to coast are still wondering why the time-honored blue uniform worn by the United States Marines were superseded by the "forest greens" now in use.

"Practical military reasons," was the brief answer given by a Marine official.

But a history shark now comes forth with a better cause, he says, than mere military necessity, for the change in colors.

He claims that green is the historic hue for the Marine Corps and to prove it he has dug up an order of the "Marine Committee," dated September 5, 1776, prescribing a uniform of green coat, faced with white, white waistcoat and breeches edged with green, and black "gaiters."

A REMARKABLE NEW PAIN KILLER

JOHNSON BLOCK CHERRY ST. CLEARFIELD

THE PRUSSIAN VULTURES

By Augustus Thomas

of the Vagabonds

In Bombay and other centers of the Parsee faith there are no burials only liberations. When a Parsee dies his body is carried to the Towers of Silence. These white walls rise from the crest of a high hill. Seen from a distance, they are surmounted always by a funeral and fretted and uneasy fringe, composed of waiting vultures whose office it is to feed upon human flesh.

These vultures are gifted with extraordinary eyes. They can see further than almost any other bird and when they rise and circle in ghastly preparation, the watcher knows they think some funeral is about to furnish their repulsive sustenance.

In the silhouette they resemble eagles. They have the wings and claws and beaks of eagles, but a kind of leprosy of the skin has left their bodies and ulcerous downward from the crown to the pompous plumage of the gorge. No doubt they estimate themselves as veritable eagles; and as far as egotism and had odor, and quarantine can isolate, they are imperial.

In human history the Prussian vultures are of their variety. With straining sight they have been known to sit for forty years waiting to devour, and when the obese scoundrels of Potsdam soar into their posthumous skies they drool a malignant salivary portent for some prospective people.

BEYATURY

Mrs. Edward Bensinger died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pool in Paradise, on Wednesday, April 24, 1918. Funeral services will be held at the Pool home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

The New Way—S. S.

SAYS BODY IS A POISON FACTORY

Urges everyone to drink glass of hot
water before breakfast

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves
behind a certain amount of incomb-
ustible material in the form of ash,
so the food and drink taken day
after day leaves in the alimentary
canal a certain amount of indigestible
material, which if not completely
eliminated from the system each day
becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins,
and poisonous poisons are formed,
and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get
feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast
each morning drink a glass of hot
water with a teaspoonful of limestone
phosphate in it to wash out of the
stomach and bowels the previous
day's accumulation of poisons and
toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick
headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad
taste, foul breath, backache, rheuma-
tic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy
stomach after meals, are urged to
get a quarter pound of limestone
phosphate from the drug store, and
begin practicing internal sanitation.
This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast
on the subject.

Remember, inside bathing is more
important than outside bathing, be-
cause the skin pores do not absorb
impurities into the blood, causing
poor health, while the bowel pores
do. Just as soap and hot water
cleanses, sweetens and freshens the
skin, so hot water and limestone
phosphate act on the stomach, liver,
kidneys and bowels.

ginning to make this drug store

The Open Door

By REV. W. W. KETCHUM
Director of Practical Work Course,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—I am the door; by me if any
man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall
go in and out, and find pasture.—Jno. 10:9

Christ in this text speaks of himself
as the door. This is a homely metaphor. It lacks the
beauty of those
Old Testament
symbols in which Christ is presented to us as the
rose of Sharon,
the lily of the valley, and the bright
and morning star.
It is, however,
more forcible, for
we know very little of the rose of Sharon, something
of the lily of the
valley, and less of
morning stars;
but we do know
considerable about
doors. Christ in
this text represents himself as the open door. The words with which he paints this into the picture are, "if any
man enter in," "go in," and "go out."

Now there must be some very plain
and fundamental lessons Christ would
teach us by this homely and common-
place portrayal of himself. One of these is the simple one that the Lord
Jesus Christ is the open door into salvation. "How elemental," you say;
yes, but how essential it is that we
know this, for many mistake other
doors for the door. They think salvation is either through the church, or
baptism, or good works, or something
else, when the truth is salvation is
through Christ. How plain and direct
are the Scriptures concerning this, as
for example, Romans 6:23, "the gift
of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord," or Acts 4:12, "Ne-
ther is there salvation in any other:
for there is none other name under
heaven given among men, whereby we
must be saved." And then the words
of Christ in our text, "I am the door;
by (through) me if any man enter in
he shall be saved."

Next to knowing that Jesus Christ
is the only open door into salvation is
the need of knowing that he is the
open door for all. He himself makes
this clear when he says "by me if any
man enter in he shall be saved." "Any
man" includes every man, and excludes no man. Jesus Christ, the open
door into salvation, swings wide open
for every one to enter in. This also is clearly taught in the Scriptures. Our Lord himself bids all men to come to
him and the all-inclusive word of the Gospel is "whosoever." In this connection it is usually coupled with another
important word that we do well to ponder,
and that is the word "will." "Who-
soever will," we read, "may come," and
again "whosoever will, let him take of
the water of life freely." So we see
that while Jesus Christ is the open
door for all, the question of entering
that door depends upon the will of
those for whom the door swings wide
open. Jesus never coerces anyone into
entering through him, the open door,
into salvation; he invites, entreats and
constrains all to enter, but never compels anyone to enter. This puts the
question of entering the open door
squarely before each person. Christ
is the open door for all into salvation,
but whether one enters or not is a matter of his own will. This is why
Jesus said to men in his day to whom
he appealed: "Ye will not come unto
me that ye might have life." What a
solastrating truth it is, that our salvation depends upon our willingness
to accept the offer of salvation fully
purchased by Christ and freely offered
to the world in him. In other plain
words, that we may be saved, or not,
as we choose. If we enter through Christ, the open door, we shall be
saved; if we choose not to enter, we
shall be lost. It is not enough, you
see, to know that Christ is the only
open door into salvation and the open
door for all. If he is to be our Savior,
he must, as the open door, be made
use of, or otherwise how can he avail us?

We should also note that Christ is
the open door into service for those
who have entered. Of such he says
they "shall go in and out and find pasture." Sustenance for the Christian
is found not only in the study of the Bible, and other means of grace, but
as well, we see from our text, in Christian service.

Christ does not intend that those
who are saved shall rest in ease; rat-
her he means that they shall serve and
in service find strength. Of himself
he said "my meat is to do the will of
him that sent me." This word was in response to his disciples who returning
from Sychar whither they had gone to
buy meat, prayed him, saying, "master
eat." To this he had replied, "I have
meat to eat that ye know not of." They
thought someone must have brought
him something to eat. But it was not
of material food he spoke; it was of
that spiritual sustenance which comes
to those who in service do the will of God. He had been ministering to the
woman of Samaria, and had met her
spiritual need; this service was to him
the meat they knew not of.

And so those who have entered into
salvation through Christ, the open
door, will find spiritual sustenance
(pasture), as they go out through Christ, the open door in service to
their fellow men.

LEMONS DO MAKE THE SKIN WHITE

How to make a creamy, lemon beauty
lotion at home for a few cents

Your grocer has the lemons and
any drug store or toilet counter will
supply you with three ounces of or-
thard white for a few cents. Squeeze
the juice of two fresh lemons into a
bottle, then put in the orchard white
and shake well. This makes a quarter pint of the very best lemon skin
whitener and complexion beautifier
known. Massage this fragrant,
creamy lotion daily into the face,
neck, arms and hands and just see
how freckles, tan, sallowness, redness
and roughness disappear and how
smooth, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless, and the
beautiful results will surprise you.

Few people are aware that the traditional heraldic color of Ireland is
blue, not green. The color of the Ul-
sterman is orange. And when the Ulster Orangemen joined the Irish
Nationalists, calling themselves the United Irishmen, in 1793, they mixed
the orange with the traditional blue,
and the result was green, which
henceforth became the color emblematic of Irish unity.

Committee

Everything is ready for the monster street parade of patriotic women this evening and the musical and speaking program for the Liberty meeting at the High School auditorium is announced in these columns. The parade band will be in on the evening P. R. R. train and after being served with sandwiches and hot coffee they will head the parade at the upper end of Second street. The parade will move, rain or shine. The women are a determined lot, as we all well know, and now that they have taken up this thing they are going to see it through in spite of weather elements.

Hon. J. Washington Logue and Hon. Samuel B. Hare are speakers of the evening and both headliners in their professions and it was indeed a lucky strike when the committee succeeded in getting these two gentlemen to come to Clearfield. They are sure to please and no man in Clearfield can afford to miss hearing them.

The parade will be a revelation, both in numbers and in beauty. The idea of giving the first section of the parade over to the mothers and wives of soldiers and sailors is a commendable one and everybody is willing that these should have the honor.

The parade will move promptly at seven o'clock and the women are asked once again to be sure to be at their respective places promptly at 6:30 to form in line. Marshals will look after the details. The big feature of the parade will be the wind-up at the High school where thousands will sing "America" our beloved hymn. Slips of paper having the words printed thereon will be handed to the marchers just before they fall in line at the respective streets.

(By United Press)

New York, April 26—An ash port carelessly left open was believed today to have flooded the American liner St. Paul sinking her at her pier. However, so far no official announcement as to the cause of the accident which probably cost three lives, has been made. Twenty men of the 350 aboard were injured. Work of raising the vessel was progressing rapidly today. Meanwhile investigation to definitely place the responsibility for the sinking was conducted by army men.

MIGHT HAVE HIT THE KAISER

(By United Press)

Copenhagen, April 26—A British airman bombarded Zebrugge while the Kaiser was inspecting the results of the recent naval raid there, German newspapers declared today. The Kaiser remained and completed his inspection.

FLAG RAISING AT RIVERVIEW

The employees of the Standard Brick works, the Riverview plant of the Clearfield Brick manufacturing company, reaffirmed their allegiance to "old glory" by raising a handsome 6x10 foot flag at the noon hour today. There was no speech making but a whole lot of patriotic enthusiasm which vented itself in loud cheering as the beautiful flag unfurled to the breeze from the top of the hundred foot flagpole.

A reinforced concrete chimney 370 feet high (the highest in the world) has recently been completed in Japan.

GERMANS HAMMER WEDGE BETWEEN FRENCH AND BRITISH LINES AND GAIN FOOTING ON MOUNT KEMMEL

Bulletin by Simms

April 26.—French troops are entirely surrounded on Mt. Kemmel. They are still fighting.

After eight hours fighting yesterday, German storm troops finally wedged their way between the French and British flanks and crossed the Kemmel-Ypres road where the terrific allied fire held them up for two hours. Then they turned southward and poured down the valley to the west of Kemmel Hill, surrounding the French, who are still fighting atop the heights.

By Henry Wood
With the French Armies in the field, April 26—The Germans are continuing the development of their attack against Amiens with increasing violence aiming eventually at a separation of the Franco-British forces. This is an indication of Hindenburg's determination to force a supreme decisive contest which unquestionably has been induced by the fact that preceding the first attack the Germans already had engaged 130 divisions of which approximately only fifty ranked as first or second class units with which to force the final issue.

Berlin via London, April 26—General von Armin's army is engaged in battling for Kemmel Heights" the official statement of the German war office issued Thursday night declared.

(By United Press)
London, April 26—German forces have obtained a footing on Mt. Kemmel, one of the most important heights in Flanders, following an all day battle on a ten mile front, Field Marshal Haig reported today. In the neighborhood of Dran-

led to withdraw a short distance under heavy enemy attack between Bailleul and Wycheate. Heavy fighting is continuing in the region of Kemmel and Hollebeke. Infantry action around Hangard-En-Santerre and along the Avres died down yesterday the French war office reported last night. There was heavy mutual artillery fighting in this region however. The German base statement announced the capture of Hangard-En-Santerre and progress northwest of Castel.

Moscow, April 26—The Germans are steadily withdrawing troops and sending them to France. Polish citizens refused to enlist in a proposed Polish corps to fight against the allies in Flanders.

SAMMIES TO BE DECORATED

By Frank J. Taylor
With the American army in Lorraine, April 26—Night — A French general will decorate with the Croix De Guerre the colors of the American regiment which defeated the five day attack of picked troops northwest of Toul two weeks ago. Individual members also will be decorated. The citations and ceremony are scheduled for Sunday. This is the first time an American regiment has received the French War Cross.

CURWENSVILLE HONORS CLAIR W. HADDEN

Loyal Sister City Pays Respect To Patriotic Son Who Gave His Life For His Country

BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTES GIVEN

Curwensville, Pa., April 26 — Curwensville was ablaze with patriotic sympathy yesterday due to the obsequies of a former citizen, Clair W. Hadden, whose life expired as a sacrifice on the altar of liberty and democracy at Camp Lee last Saturday. Burgess Traister having issued a proclamation of unusual devotion and patriotic spirit, all the industries and places of business were closed for the funeral which was held at the Academy of Music Thursday at 2 p. m. Flags were at half-mast and a subdued air was prevalent.

The remains were lying in state at the Academy for several hours preceding the exercises, so were viewed by many hundreds from Curwensville and neighboring towns. Rev. George W. Clegg presided over the following program at the Academy: America, by the congregation, taxing the capacity of the building, accompanied by the Keystone Cornet Band. Prayer by Rev. Irvin P. Hawkins. Hymn by the choir. Scripture by Rev. Benjamin H. Conley. Lead Kindly Light, by Keystone Band. Scripture by Rev. Joseph H. Cooke. Hymn by the choir. Brief address by Rev. Philip Lynch. Jesus Lover of My Soul, sung by the audience. Sermon by Rev. G. W. Clegg with Proverbs 30:16-17 as text. Prayer by Rev. J. Max Lantz. Nearer My God to Thee, by Keystone Band, concluded the exercises at the Academy.

Impressive was the appearance of the casket enshrouded by a flag and guarded by a detail of local military from Clearfield.

Several thousand people witnessed the procession winding its way to the cemetery as church bells marked its moving by tolling 24 strokes, the number of the hero's years. School children of the lower grades with their teachers lined the sidewalk as the procession passed.

Capt. Isaac B. Norris as chief marshal rode at the head of the cortege with Fred J. Dyer and John L. Thompson as aides. There followed the carriage with the Curwensville clergy, Crescent Band of Curwensville, old soldiers in carriages, Crescent Refractories Co. employees, Keystone Cornet Band of Curwensville, Rescue Hook and Ladder company in uniform, tannery employees of Curwensville, Glen Richey A. 18 miners, Curwensville High School and upper grades, Boy Scouts, Knights of the Golden Eagle of Glen Richey, I. O. O. F. of Clearfield and Curwensville, pull bearers, hearse with military escort, friends.

As the procession entered the cemetery a one minute salute of 24 shots was fired by a Spanish-American War veteran.

Interment was made at Oak Hill cemetery in Curwensville, after the procession, which was over three blocks long, had traversed the main street of the town. Rev. G. W. Clegg conducted the interment followed by the ritual of the I. O. O. F. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. A. Brown. These exercises were concluded with firing by the military escort and the sounding of taps by the bugler.

How short yet honorable Clair W. Hadden's military career, for he left his home about three weeks ago as a member of Co. L, 319 Infantry. This soldier was a son of Mrs. Frances and the late Anthony Hadden, of Curwensville. He was born at Marion in February, 1894, and is survived by his mother, brother Frank, and sister Mrs. Mark Patterson, all of Curwensville, his brother Ferdinand of McCortney, and Lloyd at war, being somewhere at sea, en route for the front, and a half brother, Vern Caldwell, of Pine Grove. The deceased was a member of Clearfield Lodge, I. O. O. F. and of Bloomington Castle, K. G. E. of Glen Richey, both of which sent floral tributes and a goodly number of members. This was the first of Curwensville's sons to be returned to his home for burial, though two others had previously sacrificed their lives in this great war.

Some of the elderly citizens of the town claim that this was the greatest demonstration of its kind in Curwensville ever seen.

CLEAN UP NOW AND SAVE THE KIDDIES

Grandpap Fly Is Just About To Begin Bringing His Offspring To Clearfield By Millions

CLEAN BEFORE GRASS GROWS

American housekeepers have adopted the custom of conducting semi-annual house cleanings. Spring and fall, window hangings and everything washable are put through the laundry, carpets and upholstery are taken into the air and thoroughly cleaned and dusted, and all woodwork, floors and furniture are scrubbed and polished until their surfaces shine.

It is advisable at this time for Pennsylvania's citizens to carry out the spring clean-up going to the attics and cellars of the houses, all portions of the premises in the dwelling stands to establish the outdoors, and to adjacent streets and alleys, so that conditions accumulating during the winter months that are unsightly, messy, very often fly breeding and mosquito breeding nuisances detrimental to health, may be removed. Nature now about to place her green mantle over the scars of winter and get of all outdoors a great health laboratory. Clean up now before these things are hidden.

It is proposed to inaugurate a state-wide clean-up during the week of May 6th to May 11th inclusive. Every citizen in the commonwealth is asked to clean his house and to remove every bit of rubbish and unsightly thing stored in any part of his house, he is asked to sweep and completely empty his cellars, attics and to gather every bit of garbage lying on the surface of the ground adjoining his dwelling place at a point convenient for collection and removal by wagon. It is proposed to correct the many sanitary conditions responsible for appalling infant mortality, the stunting and crippling of growing children and those conditions leading to industrial inefficiency due to insanitary evils.

The Federal Children's Bureau has secured governmental endorsement for making our second year of the world-wide war a "Children's Year." A Presidential proclamation has been followed by a proclamation by the governor of this commonwealth urging a country-wide effort to maintain the health and save the lives of our children. While our soldiers are fighting on the battlefields of France to make Pennsylvania safe for the children now alive and those yet unborn to live in, those of us who remain amid the comforts of home must not leave standing a single menace to the lives and health of these children.

Casualties in killed and wounded in the warring countries have been enormous and birth rates have fallen from 25 per cent to 60 per cent. Birth casualties and deaths in civil life with tremendous decrease in birth in some of these countries give an extent

About twenty-five of the friends of Anson W. Lansberry, one of the next contingent for the National Army, met at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lansberry, on Merrill street last evening and bade the young man to a surprise well party. It was a happy gathering. Music was furnished by the old Lansberry and William Brown. The guest of honor was given a handsome wrist watch as a token of esteem. Delicious refreshments were served. "Jobbery" promised to bring the Kaiser's hide back with him from Berlin.

WHERE WAS P. P. BLISS BORN?

Day before yesterday The Progress carried a query as to the birthplace of the noted hymn writer, P. P. Bliss. It is an assured fact that Mr. Bliss was a Clearfield County man and discussion over the place of his birth is growing quite interesting. Yesterday a reader contributed his bit of information and today in another column, we publish another letter which claims Hickory Kingdom in Houston township as the birthplace instead of Center in Lawrence township. Let everybody give any information they have. We will publish all letters.

THE LIST OF SOLDIERS

The list of soldiers which we print today is not all the men who have gone from this community. The list is started and will be added to as we receive the proper information. It has been our purpose for some time to prepare a roster of men in the service from this community and this list will in the near future be classified and rearranged in a manner that will do justice to these religious men. The list as it stands today is imposing. One would hardly have thought that there were so many. As we glance down the list we see hundreds of names that we know. Many were our friends, and it is small wonder that there are few left on the streets in the evening when so many are seen to have gone to the colors.

NOTHING DOING IN THE CONTEST LINE

The ever-blooming fifty fifty newspaper subscription contest man hit Clearfield Monday evening and had nerve enough to come into The Progress office and offer to increase our subscription list by us by the usual "hound a poor devil for his dollar" plan. Very idea didn't pay a word, but quietly walked out to our files and got Mr. Contest Man a copy of last Friday's Progress and when he had finished reading the story of our business growth and we flashed our subscription card index file on him, he promptly apologized for intruding and beat it for outdoors, remarking as he did so, "No use for me here, boss."

There was more truth than poetry in his remark at that. There is no use in these war times for any get rich quick scheme or money-grabbing contest of any kind or description and newspapers first of all have learned that lesson.

LOAN NEARS TWO BILLION

Washington, April 26—Liberty Day proclaimed a national holiday by President Wilson was observed through the land today. A mighty effort was made to bring the somewhat lagging liberty loan up to schedule. Today's close, liberty head-quarters here believe, will keep the loan well past the two billion dollar mark and give impetus to carry it far over the three billion dollars which must at least be obtained. At the capital hall a hundred men marching their first path to war with lead hats, thousand bond buyers. Official figures up to ten o'clock this morning showed the loan totaled $1,968,776,860, less than two-thirds of the minimum.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Clearfield Progress.

In issue of April 24th, 1918 Rev. Poulson asks who can give the birthplace of P. P. Bliss the hymn writer. He was born, I think, in Houston township, Clearfield county, not far from Hickory Kingdom. He often attended church at Penfield. I saw him and heard him sing. He lost his life in the Ashtabula bridge disaster. C. A. WOODS

An airplane was first used in war in 1911 by Hamilton, who flew over Ciudad Juarez, while fighting was in progress between the Mexican rebels and the Government troops, and reported the situation to the latter.

THE GERMAN KAISER A TROGLODYTE

Editors needing suggestion for writings on the Kaiser might read Prof. Proctor's description of various missing links including the aleelet which according to the learned professor is "the lowest vertebrate and fish" and has no brain, heart, bones, skull, ears, or kidney. It is the only vertebrate which lacks a heart, and it is likewise the only vertebrate in which the blood is colorless.

How much would you have to change that to describe the head of the Hohenzollern family? Is not the Kaiser, in fact, a psychological missing link between the troglodytes and modern civilization?

After fighting as a nation for three thousand years, the Italians nationally and individually still stand out among the world's best fighters. And living in America doesn't seem to interfere with their efficiency.

Here is an authentic story from the trenches. A young Italian, coal miner from Pennsylvania, born in America, five feet four inches high, brought in two prisoners, having killed another, and asked for a match. The officer's answer was "I will give you a match if you will bring in another prisoner."

Promptly the young Italian went over the parapet again, and returned with another prisoner walking, with hands in the air, ahead of the Italian's bayonet point.

"Hun fights well in crowds, but is yellow hand to hand, says Yankees."

Under that heading an International News cable quotes a young American soldier as follows: "Them guys don't stand up and fight. They are all right in crowds, but they quit cold when they get in hand-to-hand fighting."—Arthur Brisbane.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BASEBALL IN THE ARMY

Lex McCloskey, a Clearfield boy now a member of the 57th U. S. Infantry and located at Houston, Texas, has been selected for the short stop position on the Regimental baseball team, which will tour the different army cantonments during the summer and thus help furnish a little amusement and recreation to break the monotony of intensive military training.

Lex was some ball tosser while at home and will give a good account of himself.

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn so it lifts out.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and it said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE GETTING RESULTS

A. H. Woodward and J. Frank Snyder addressed a highly enthusiastic meeting at Grampian last night. Grampian's patriotic citizens did themselves proud by purchasing $30,000 worth of Liberty Bonds.

Dr. J. Currier presided at the meeting, which was opened by prayer by Rev. W. R. Jones.

C. S. Russell, of Curwensville, explained the Liberty Loan proposition and the Grampian Boy Scouts acted as solicitors. The Scouts sold $9000 worth of bonds, one energetic lad having twenty-three applications to his credit. The total subscriptions were more than $30,000 and the Scouts promise that these figures will be improved before the campaign ends.

There can be no question of the loyalty and patriotism of the people of Grampian, Penn and Bloom township, that's sure.

H. B. Powell and Hon. Joseph E. Phillips continued the campaign up Chest creek and following a well attended meeting at Five Points about $4,000 worth of bonds were subscribed. Clark's orchestra and male quartette from Mahaffey furnished inspiring music for the occasion.

W. A. Hagerty, W. I. Betts and A. R. Chase addressed a Liberty Loan meeting at Sinal school house in Girard township last evening and before the meeting broke up $4200 worth of bonds were sold. Many additional Girard township citizens had already subscribed following the Surveyor meeting which goes to show that our "northern possessions" are loyal and alright.

SOAPS AND OILS GETTING SCARCE

Owing to conditions that have been coming to a focus during the past ten years, the fat and oil situation in this country is becoming more and more acute with each passing month.

Soap manufacturers, in bulletins to their trade, are presaging that it will not be long before the price of a good clean wash will be much higher than it is today. The decrease in the amount of live-stock that has for years buoyed up the soap industry and the cutting off of all imports from foreign nations; the shipping to our Allies, who are in much worse plight than we are, has brought about a condition that is causing no little amount of worry and the outlook for the industry is not very encouraging.

Even castor oil, which could, upon great stress, be converted to soap and of which there will be an immense acreage planted this coming summer is taken away from the soap makers and is being used as a lubricant for aircraft that will help bring the Hun to his knees.

The American public is and has been willing to make denials to staff the Hun and it looks as if there was going to be another in the shape of paying more for the privilege of keeping clean.

The price of all soap has begun to feel the grease shortage and in some localities the retailers are already feeling the pinch as their soap orders are being cut down by their manufacturers.

The ex-Empress Eugenie, who will be 22 years old next month, is said to be exceedingly well posted on the progress and details of the war, particularly all that pertains to the French participation in the conflict.

"I was a fine example of 'every picture tells a story' says John N. Jones, of 1220 Camden street, Harrisburg. 'I was that crippled up with lumbago that I couldn't straighten myself up and I felt so worn out that I thought my days of usefulness were about done.'

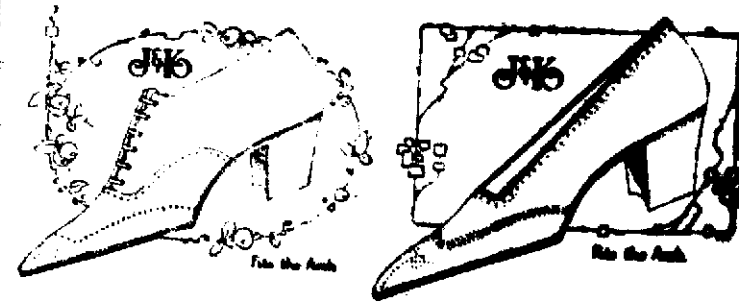

"I suffered agonies. Why, I couldn't even bend over to tie my shoes without feeling as if a streak of fire was running up and down my back, and when I did get down I couldn't get straightened up again."

"I tried a lot of different kinds of medicines without any results so far as I could see and I had a picture of myself out of work and not able to life a hand to earn my living."

"Then one day I read about Tanlac in my paper and I came right down and got a bottle, for, said I, 'if it will do so much for other people it looks as if it would help me.' Did it? Almost before you could say 'How-de-do' I was feeling better, and from that time on my improvement has been steady until now I am back on my job again and feeling five years younger."

"Now I feel absolutely O. K. and am back on my old job again and I can truthfully say that Tanlac put me there."

of deaths over births amounting to hundreds of thousands. The experience of other warring countries will be repeated here. It behooves us as Pennsylvania citizens to face the situation squarely now and to exert ourselves to the utmost to compensate the loss of man-power immediately ahead.

The Nation plans to save a hundred thousand lives of children under five years of age. This means the saving of nearly ten thousand in Pennsylvania alone. We must leave no stone unturned to do our part and by planning and carrying out a statewide "clean up week" the first great forward step may be taken.

The common fly is the greatest menace to human life, dangerous because born in filth, living in filth and emerging from filth to contaminate food supplies. During "Clean-up Week" all collections of garbage, rubbish, ashes and unsightly things should be removed, all accumulations of stable manure should be removed from populous centers and plowed under. A plan may readily be followed for removing all stable manure to farmsteads and plowing it under, without becoming the usual fly breeding menace to the lives and health of Pennsylvania's babies. Stagnant water, cess pools, garbage cans, bad supervised dumps and vacant lots are common breeding places of mosquitoes. Clean them up now before breeding is well started.

Every municipality in Pennsylvania should at this time thoroughly rid itself of public health menaces so that it may be said "This town is doing its bit to conserve and offset the tremendous waste of life incident to war."

ENTERTAINED FOR FRIENDS

Mrs. Jas J. Corrigan entertained about 25 friends and neighbors last night at her home on Fourth street at a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Raymond Logan's birthday. The evening was very enjoyably spent in knitting and the victrol furnished pleasant music for the occasion. Mrs. Corrigan Jr. played a number of popular selections on the piano. An excellent lunch was served and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Logan many more happy birthdays. Mrs. Logan was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts.

Salts Fine for Aching Kidneys

We eat too much meat which clogs Kidneys, then the Back hurts

Most people forget that the kidneys are of grapes and lemon juice, combined and need a flushing occasionally. We have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid bowels, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean. A few moments' daily use of a few ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. The famous salts is made

THE BROWNING GUN INVENTOR

John M. Browning, inventor of the Browning machine gun and the Browning automatic rifle which Uncle Sam is producing by thousands for use against the Boche is turning back to the government some three and a half million dollars in disclaimed royalties.

Normal royalty payments to Browning for guns now under order would be approximately $5,000,000.

"Whatever the government says is a fair price, I am willing to accept," he told the officials sent to negotiate with him. He agreed without question to a flat price of $1,000,000 plus an expense allowance and signed to Uncle Sam the right to produce as many of his guns as might be needed. Browning is 62; of Mormon stock, slender, slightly stooped; bald except for a narrow fringe of gray hair; wears a closely clipped mustache; face is a network of fine lines and between his two eyes two vertical lines cut deeply into the flesh; dresses simply in pepper and salt gray, or blue serge; wears no jewelry; hates publicity; affects no "front," salts away his royalties; still keeps up Utah home, where he was born.

CLEARFIELD'S HONOR ROLL

An effort is being made to secure a complete record of the Clearfield boys who have enlisted in the army and navy since war was declared to exist. Chief Clerk Bain of the local Exemption Board has been compiling such record from his files and those of The Progress. We present here with a roster of the boys who have already offered themselves. While we feel many names have been missed, we have the remarkable total of four hundred names.

A very few of those in the list have since been discharged on account of physical disability, but all showed the proper spirit by offering their services.

This is certainly a fine showing but we are satisfied that some names have been missed. Will Progress readers kindly look the list over and supply us with any names they may have that do not appear in our list.

YOU CERTAINLY CAN!

Every day we are asked this question: "Can I play Columbia records on my Victor talking machine?" Here is our answer: "You certainly can and without any extra attachments or trouble." Furthermore we wish to advise you that you can play Columbia records on the Brunswick or the Edison Machines just as easily as you can on the Columbia machine.

STEWART DRUG COMPANY

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns

Why do you limp around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swelling and draws the soreness and aches right out of your feet; chafes, smart, and burns. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, calloused and burning feet. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet.

The Voice of Lincoln

ON November 19, 1863, Abraham Lincoln made an immortal speech on the Battlefield of Gettysburg. His words ring as clear and as true today—line for line a message to Americans at war—as they did when he spoke them so eloquently more than half a century ago. Let us apply these words to ourselves.

"Our Fathers," he said, "brought forth a nation conceived in Liberty."

"Our soldiers gave their lives that that nation might live."

"The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here."

"It is for us the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion,—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—"

THE flower of America is in France today. They offer—for us—the last full measure of devotion. Let us be with them in our thought, our work, every hour of every day until they come home to us victorious.

And let us remember that "the world will little note what we say here." But what we do here counts. Liberty Bonds will help to save the lives of our men in France and on the sea. Let us roll up a subscription that will set the world on fire. Let us make the victory swift and sure! Some of these boys will not return to us. But our overwhelming offering of dollars to our country will show the world that we shall not turn back—that we have resolved—and acted on that high resolve—"that these dead shall not have died in vain."

ODD FELLOWS WILL CELEBRATE

The ninety-ninth anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be celebrated by Clearfield Lodge 198 in a very fitting way on Friday evening April 26th at 8:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church. A special program has been arranged for. Rev. C. R. Allenbach of Bedford, Pa., former pastor of the Lutheran church at this place, will be the speaker. The general public is invited to this service.

Ladies! Why Keep Corns?

Life a corn or callus right off without one bit of pain.

Yes! You truly can lift off every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as hard corn calluses on bottom of feet, without one bit of pain.

A genius in Cincinnati discovered freezone. It is an ether compound and tiny bottles of this fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents.

Apply several drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you life it off with the fingers. You feel no pain while applying freezone or afterwards. Just think! No more corns or calluses to torture you and they go without causing one twinge of pain or soreness. Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

Why

MAINS BOY DIES OF HIS INJURIES AT THE HOSPITAL

Edgar E. Munn, the West Side boy who was so terribly burned by exploding oil at the Merrill Office hunting camp on Wednesday evening, died at the Clearfield hospital at 3 o'clock this morning.

The boy was burned from head to foot, with the exception of one arm, and it is also thought that he inhaled the first burst of flame following the oil can's explosion, although his face was but little burned. A piece of the can struck him in the mouth, cutting a piece out of his lip.

The badly injured boy had lots of nerve and his folks were terribly shocked when they went to the hospital to see him this morning to learn that he had passed away during the night.

He was a bright, manly boy and a comfort to his parents in their advancing years, and they are heartbroken over their sudden bereavement. Besides his father and mother he is survived by seven half brothers and six half sisters.

The funeral cortege will meet at his late home on Mill Road Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock and proceed to the Paradise chapel, where Rev. McChesney of the Baptist church will conduct the services. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

"There is a land that is fairer than day
And by faith I can see it afar;
And a Father waits over the way
To prepare us a dwelling place there."

SUGAR BY CERTIFICATE FOR USE IN PRESERVES

A "certificate" system, thought to be more effective and to cause less inconvenience than the card systems of other countries, will be used this year by the Food Administration to permit housewives to obtain sufficient sugar for summer preserving, and also to prevent hoarding.

This will guard against temporary sugar shortages, it is said, that might result from diverting vessels from the Cuban trade. Retail dealers will be provided with certificates which consumers must sign before they obtain sugar for preserving. The certificate gives the names of the dealer and the consumer, and the quantity needed. The certificate must be returned within a week after it is signed to the Federal Food Administrator for the State.

To build reserve stocks to meet the demand for sugar, jobbers are now permitted to keep sixty days' instead of thirty days' supply, while Federal Food Administrators have the authority to permit retailers to keep more than 1,000 pounds on hand. In the past this quantity has been the limit.

Commercial canners will be permitted to increase their purchases and gradually accumulate enough sugar for their requirements this year, the same latitude is not extended to manufacturers of less essential food-stuffs. Housewives are still restricted to purchases for other than preserving purposes in quantities of not more than five pounds.

HOUSE PASSES BILL
DRAFTING YOUTHS OF 21

Washington, April 25.—Drafting of men who have become 21 since last June 5 was approved this afternoon by the House. Under an amendment by Representative Hull, they will be put at the foot of the list and called only when all available men in the last year's registration have been taken.

This and one other provision which does away with military exemptions for divinity students, will necessitate a conference with the senate.

Chairman Dent announced that the war department will order the registration of the men made eligible by this bill June 5. All men who have reached 21 by that date must register. They will be classified after answering questionnaires.

THE UNIFORM ONLY THING GREEN ABOUT THE MARINES

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Folk from coast to coast are still wondering why the time-honored blue uniform worn by the United States Marines were superseded by the "forest greens" now in use.

"Practical military reasons," was the brief answer given by a Marine official.

But a history shark now comes forth with a better cause, he says, than mere military necessity, for the change in colors.

He claims that green is the historic hue for the Marine Corps and to prove it he has dug up an order of the "Marine Committee," dated September 5, 1776, prescribing a uniform of green coat, faced with white, white waistcoat and breeches edged with green, and black "gaiters."

A REMARKABLE NEW PAIN KILLER

Wonderful 20th Century Liniment
Stops Rheumatic and all Other Pains Surely and Speedily

Those sharp agonizing twinges are almost instantly relieved by the remarkable new pain killer and rheumatic remedy, 20th Century Liniment. Just rub it on—that's all. Acts like magic. No hot water bath needed. You simply apply it direct from the bottle.

Its positive, quick action in all cases of rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, backache, etc., prove 20th Century Liniment to be the sworn enemy of all pain. It's the finest preparation in the world for soothing sprains and bruises. Try it. Just the thing for your tired, aching, burning feet. Takes out all soreness, and pain, leaving them fresh, cool and comfortable.

Take a bottle home tonight and enjoy genuine foot comfort. There's no need to nurse pain when you can get quick relief at the nearest drug store.

WANTS ARMY OF SAVERS

The purpose of the War Savings committee is to create an army of savers who will, by saving, release labor and materials for the use of the government in the war, and who will lend their savings to the government to prosecute the war.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound" you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Extra Specials For Week- End Grocery Buyers at The Liberty Cash Grocery

We have some of the needed groceries at this store so priced for the week-end selling that it will be of material value for you to take the few extra steps down here and see what you can save.

Remember! This is a store where nothing is charged on the books—one saving. Nothing is delivered—another saving. These two savings put together allow us to sell much cheaper than you ordinarily buy such groceries.

You'll find on these shelves a higher class of groceries than the price marks show.

THE PRUSSIAN VULTURES

By Augustus Thomas
of the Vagabonds

In Bombay and other centers of the Parsee faith there are no burials only liberations. When a Parsee dies his body is carried to the Towers of Silence. These white walls rise from the crest of a high hill. Seen from a distance, they are surmounted always by a funeral and fretted and uneasy fringe, composed of waiting vultures whose office it is to feed upon human flesh.

These vultures are gifted with extraordinary eyes. They can see further than almost any other bird and when they rise and circle in ghastly preparation, the watcher knows they think some funeral is about to furnish their repulsive sustenance.

In the silhouette they remind of eagles. They have the wings and claws and beaks of eagles but a kind of leprosy of the body has left them bald.

and ulcerous downward from the crown to the pompous plumage of the gorge. No doubt they estimate themselves as veritable eagles; and as far as egotism and bad odor, and quarantine can isolate, they are imperial.

In human history the Prussian vultures are of their variety. With straining sight they have been known to sit for forty years waiting to devour, and when the obese scoundrels of Potsdam soar into their posthumous skies they drool a malignant salivary portent for some prospective people.

BEYATURY

Mrs. Edward Bensinger died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pool in Paradise, on Wednesday, April 24, 1918. Funeral services will be held at the Pool home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

SAYS BODY IS A POISON FACTORY

Urges everyone to drink glass of hot
water before breakfast

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves
behind a certain amount of incomb-
ustible material in the form of ash,
so the food and drink taken day
after day leaves in the alimentary
canal a certain amount of indigestible
material, which if not completely
eliminated from the system each day
becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxin-
ous, poisonous poisons are formed,
and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get
feeling right must begin to take in-
side baths. Before eating breakfast
each morning drink a glass of hot
water with a teaspoonful of limestone
phosphate in it to wash out of the
stomach and bowels the previous
day's accumulation of poisons and
toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.
Those who are subject to sick
headache, colds, biliousness, constipa-
tion, others who wake up with bad
taste, foul breath, backache, rheuma-
tic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy
stomach after meals, are urged to
get a quarter pound of limestone
phosphate from the drug store, and
begin practicing internal sanitation.
This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast
on the subject.

Remember, inside bathing is more
important than outside bathing, be-
cause the skin pores do not absorb
impurities into the blood, causing
poor health, while the bowel pores
do. Just as soap and hot water
cleanses, sweetens and freshens the
skin, so hot water and limestone
phosphate act on the stomach, liver,
kidneys and bowels.

ginning to make this drug store

The Open Door

By REV. W. W. KETCHUM
Director of Practical Work Course,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—I am the door; by me if any
man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall
go in and out, and find pasture.—Jno. 10:9

Christ in this text speaks of himself
as the door. This is a homely meta-
phor. It lacks the
beauty of those
Old Testament
symbols in which Christ is present-
ed to us as the
rose of Sharon,
the lily of the valley, and the bright
and morning star.
It is, however,
more forcible, for
we know very little of the rose of Sharon, something
of the lily of the
valley, and less of
morning stars;
but we do know
considerable about
doors. Christ in
this text represents
himself as the open door. The words with which he paints this picture are, "if any
man enter in," "go in," and "go out."

Now there must be some very plain
and fundamental lessons Christ would
teach us by this homely and common-
place portrayal of himself. One of these is the simple one that the Lord
Jesus Christ is the open door into sal-
vation. "How elemental," you say;
yes, but how essential it is that we
know this, for many mistake other
doors for the door. They think salvation is either through the church, or
baptism, or good works, or something
else, when the truth is salvation is
through Christ. How plain and direct
are the Scriptures concerning this, as
for example, Romans 6:23, "the gift
of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord," or Acts 4:12, "Nether is there salvation in any other:
for there is none other name under
heaven given among men, whereby we
must be saved." And then the words
of Christ in our text, "I am the door;
by (through) me if any man enter in
he shall be saved."

Next to knowing that Jesus Christ
is the only open door into salvation is
the need of knowing that he is the
open door for all. He himself makes
this clear when he says "by me if any
man enter in he shall be saved." "Any
man" includes every man, and ex-
cludes no man. Jesus Christ, the open
door into salvation, swings wide open
for every one to enter in. This also is clearly taught in the Scriptures. Our Lord himself bids all men to come to
him and the all-inclusive word of the Gospel is "whosoever." In this connection it is usually coupled with another
important word that we do well to ponder, and that is the word "will." "Who-
soever will," we read, "may come," and
again "whosoever will, let him take of
the water of life freely." So we see
that while Jesus Christ is the open
door for all, the question of entering
that door depends upon the wills of
those for whom the door swings wide
open. Jesus never coerces anyone into
entering through him, the open door,
into salvation; he invites, entreats and
constrains all to enter, but never com-
pels anyone to enter. This puts the
question of entering the open door
squarely before each person. Christ
is the open door for all into salvation,
but whether one enters or not is a
matter of his own will. This is why
Jesus said to men in his day to whom
he appealed: "Ye will not come unto
me that ye might have life." What a astonishing truth it is, that our salvation depends upon our willingness
to accept the offer of salvation fully
purchased by Christ and freely offered
to the world in him. In other plain
words, that we may be saved, or not,
as we choose. If we enter through Christ, the open door, we shall be
saved; if we choose not to enter, we
shall be lost. It is not enough, you
see, to know that Christ is the only
open door into salvation and the open
door for all. If he is to be our Savior,
he must, as the open door, be made
use of, or otherwise how can he avail us?

We should also note that Christ is
the open door into service for those
who have entered. Of such he says
they "shall go in and out and find pas-
ture." Sustenance for the Christian
is found not only in the study of the Bible, and other means of grace, but
as well, we see from our text, in Christian service.

Christ does not intend that those
who are saved shall rest in ease; rat-
her he means that they shall serve and
in service find strength. Of himself
he said "my meat is to do the will of
him that sent me." This word was in
response to his disciples who returning
from Sychar whither they had gone to
buy meat, prayed him, saying, "master
eat." To this he had replied, "I have
meat to eat that ye know not of." They
thought someone must have brought
him something to eat. But it was not
of material food he spoke; it was of
that spiritual sustenance which comes
to those who in service do the will of
God. He had been ministering to the
woman of Samaria, and had met her
spiritual need; this service was to him
the meat they knew not of.

And so those who have entered into
salvation through Christ, the open
door, will find spiritual sustenance
(pasture), as they go out through Christ, the open door in service to
their fellow men.

LEMONS DO MAKE THE SKIN WHITE

How to make a creamy, lemon beauty
lotion at home for a few cents

Your grocer has the lemons and
any drug store or toilet counter will
supply you with three ounces of or-
thard white for a few cents. Squeeze
the juice of two fresh lemons into a
bottle, then put in the orchard white
and shake well. This makes a quar-
ter pint of the very best lemon skin
whitener and complexion beautifier
known. Massage this fragrant,
creamy lotion daily into the face,
neck, arms and hands and just see
how freckles, tan, sallowness, redness
and roughness disappear and how
smooth, soft and white the skin be-
comes. Yes! It is harmless, and the
beautiful results will surprise you.

Few people are aware that the traditional heraldic color of Ireland is
blue, not green. The color of the Ul-
sterman is orange. And when the
Ulster Orangemen joined the Irish
Nationalists, calling themselves the United Irishmen, in 1793, they mixed
the orange with the traditional blue,
and the result was green, which
henceforth became the color emblem-
atic of Irish unity.
